Clueless about your Child's KG admission?

Get your hands on the parent's guidebook to compare and choose the best school for your child.

I remember my neighbour's kid on his very first KG Day head to the Queen Mira International School in his night pyjamas and with crumpled hair. Know why? Of course the 3-year-old little boy was brimming with excitement after the school tour.

Well, who would say no to kind welcoming smiles, colourful and chatty classrooms, an outdoor gym for endless play, and the freedom & space to dirty, colour, make mistakes, and explore?

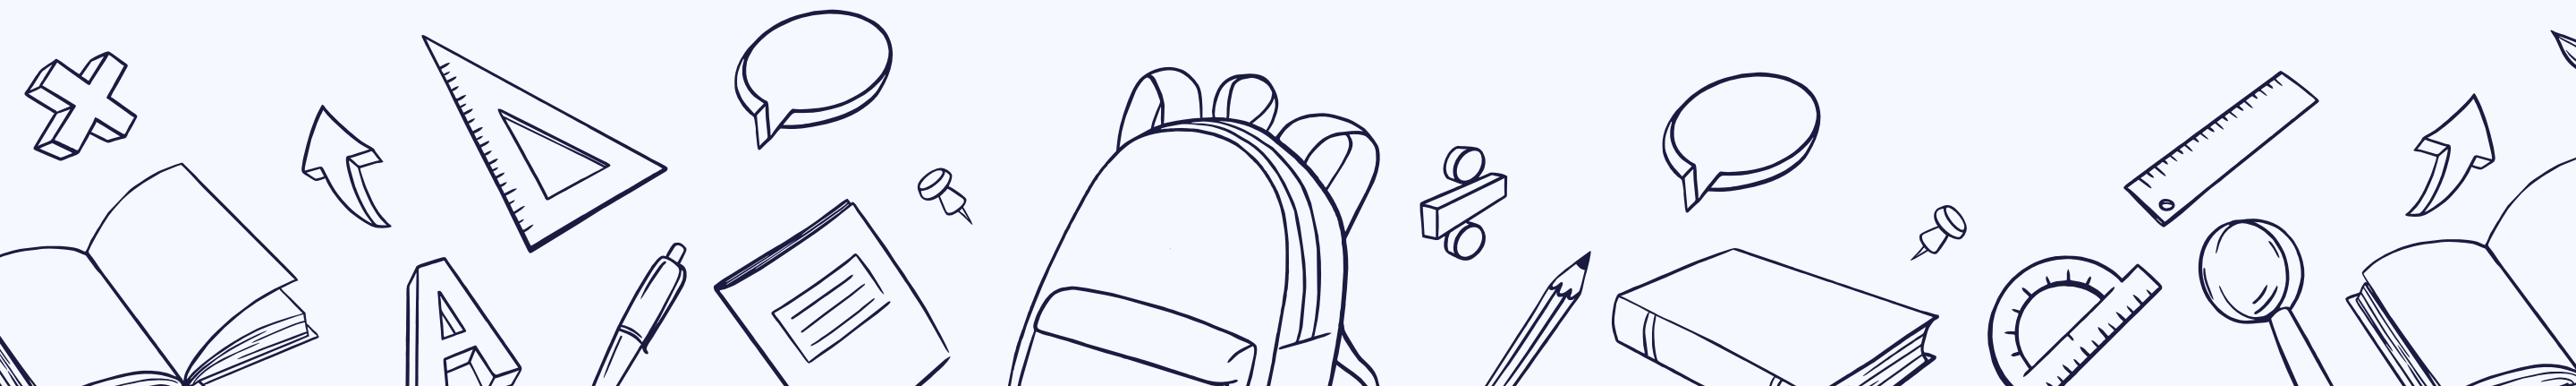

Here is a researched comparative analysis of QMIS vs other schools in Madurai to help you make a well-informed decision.

With a confusing number of school choices, picking the right one to give the perfect beginning for your child can get exhaustive. The parent and school community must understand that most learning happens outside the limits of a textbook and classroom and it is a 'happy child' who grows up to become a leader. We, at Queen Mira provide an optimal learning environment that allows the child to excel academically and in his/her multidisciplinary interests as well.

The insights from this guide and the other resourceful blogs from Queen Mira can help you make this profound decision from a place of knowledge, in tandem with your expectations and your child's potential.

Wishing you clarity and knowing, in choosing the right school that can enrich your child's learning and growth in our diverse world!
